

Every _____ is created Twice.

We need to keep working like it depends on ____, and we need to keep praying like it depends on ____.

It's not ____ confidence, but it's ____ confidence.

I would rather have one ____ idea, then a thousand ____ idea

Never underestimate how God can do something ____ through one ____ act of obedience.

Romans 8:31 "If God is for us, than who can be against us?"

Discussion questions

- What were some of your dreams as a child? What did you want to be when you grew up?
- What if the money weren't an object and you knew you couldn't fail— what passion would you pursue?
- Have you ever had a God idea? What was it? How did you know it was a God idea, not just a good idea?
- God sometimes uses past to prepare us for the future. Have you ever seen God use past experiences to prepare us for something in the future?
- How would you rank your spiritual disciplines (Studying Scripture, Praying, Journaling, Meditating, Fasting)? Have someone keep your accountable as you focus on one of the disciplines and leverage it this week.
